

Your Year of Adventure and Friendship.

Girl Scouts find themselves and change the world—one adventure at a time.

Make friends, explore, and have FUN with Girl Scouts!

WHEN: Monday, October 21 | 5:30 PM

WHERE: Andrew Carnegie Free Library
300 Beechwood Ave, Carnegie, PA 15106

WHO: For girls in grades K-12 and their caregiver(s).

(This event is designed for new girls who have not joined Girl Scouts. Current Girl Scout members may only attend if they are bringing a friend who is interested in joining.)

COST: This event is FREE! The cost of membership is $25/year. Financial assistance is available for membership, council activities, and uniforms.

MORE INFO: Contact Jeanie Gogal at 800-248-3355 or email jgogal@gswpa.org.

As a Girl Scout, you'll:

- try fun new things,
- discover your hidden talents,
- travel the world,
- make an impact in your community,
- gain amazing life skills,
- have real-world learning experiences,
- and—most importantly—find a supportive group of friends who have your back no matter what.

Be a Girl Scout.

gswpa.org/join

